MY GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

1. My Grandfather's clock was too tall for the shelf so it stood 90 years on the floor
 It was taller by far than the old man himself Tho' it weighed not a pennyweight more
 It was bought on the morn, of the day that he was born And was always his treasure and pride
 But it stopped – short – never to go - again When the - old man died

CHORUS:

90 years without slumbering - (tic toc tic toc) his life seconds numbering (tic toc, tic toc)
 But it stopped – short – never to go - again When the - old man died

2. In watching its pendulum swing to and fro Many hours had he spent as a boy
 And in childhood and manhood the clock seemed to know And to share both his grief and his joy
 For it struck 24 when he entered at the door With a blooming and beautiful bride
 But it stopped – short – never to go - again When the - old man died

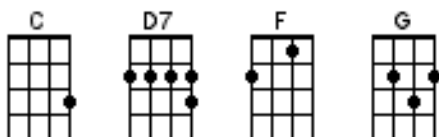

CHORUS

3. My grandfather said that of those he could hire Not a servant so faithful he'd found
 For it wasted no time and had but one desire At the close of each week to be wound
 Yes it kept in its place not a frown upon its face And its hands never hung by its side
 But it stopped – short – never to go - again When the - old man died

CHORUS

4. Then it rang an alarm in the dead of the night An alarm that for years had been dumb
 And we knew that his spirit was pluming its flight That his hour of departure had come
 Still the clock kept the time, with a soft and muffled chime As we silently stood by his side
 But it stopped – short – never to go - again When the - old man died

CHORUS

Nowhere Man

1. He's a real nowhere man, sitting in his nowhere land,
 Making all his nowhere plans for nobody.

Doesn't have a point of view, knows not where he's going to.
 Isn't he a bit like you and me?

2. Nowhere man, please listen. You don't know what you're missing.
 Nowhere man, the world is at your command.

3. He's a real nowhere man, sitting in his nowhere land,
 Making all his nowhere plans for nobody.

4. He's as blind as he can be, just sees what he wants to see.
 Nowhere man, can you see me, at all?

Nowhere man, don't worry. Take your time, don't hurry.
 Leave it all, till somebody else lends you a hand.

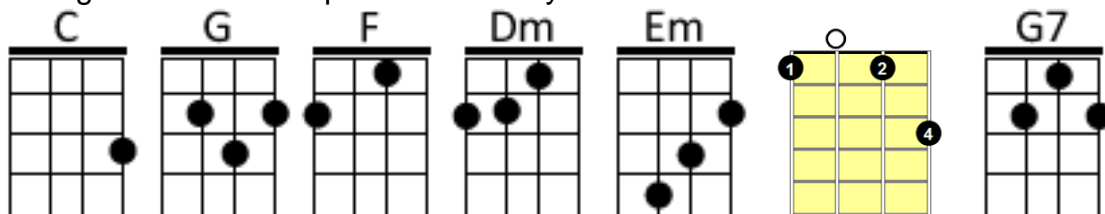

5. Doesn't have a point of view, knows not where he's going to.
 Isn't he a bit like you and me?

Nowhere man, please listen. You don't know what you're missing.
 Nowhere man, the world is at your command.

6. He's a real nowhere man, sitting in his nowhere land,
 Making all his nowhere plans for nobody.

Making all his nowhere plans for nobody.

Super Trouper

Chorus:

Tonight the Super Trouper beams are gonna blind me but I won't feel blue like I always do

'Cause somewhere in the crowd there's you

1. I was sick and tired of everything when I called you last night from Glasgow

All I do is eat and sleep and sing wishing every show was the last show

So imagine I was glad to hear you're coming - suddenly I feel all right

And it's gonna be so different when I'm on the stage tonight

Tonight the Super Trouper lights are gonna find me shining like the sun

Smiling, having fun - feeling like a number one

Chorus

2. Facing twenty thousand of your friends how can anyone be so lonely

Part of a success that never ends still I'm thinking about you only

There are moments when I think I'm going crazy - but it's gonna be alright

Everything will be so different when I'm on the stage tonight

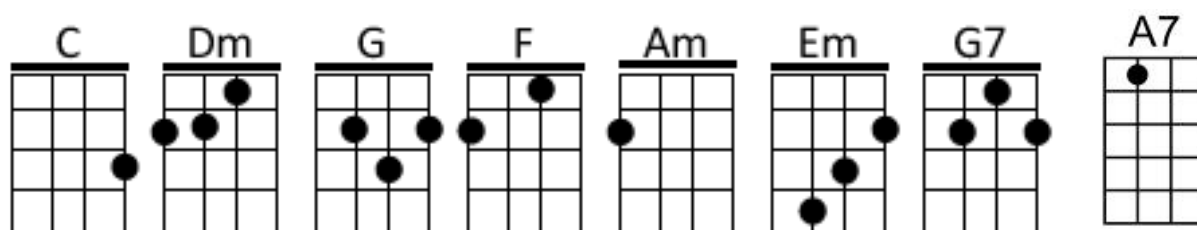

Chorus (+2)

3. So I'll be there when you arrive - the sight of you will prove to me I'm still alive

And when you take me in your arms and hold me tight

I know it's gonna mean so much tonight

TITANIC - It was sad when that great ship went down

D G D
Oh, they built the ship Titanic, to sail the ocean blue,
G A7
They thought they had a ship that the water would never go through,
D G
But the Lord's almighty hand knew that ship would never land.
A7 D
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

G D
It was sad, it was sad, it was sad, it was sad,
A7
It was sad when that great ship went down.
D G
Husbands and wives, little children lost their lives,
D A7 D
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Oh, they sailed from England, and were almost to the shore,
When the rich they refused to associate with the poor.
So, they put them down below, where they were first to go.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

The Titanic left the harbour and at a rapid speed,
She was carrying all the things that the people would ever need.
She sailed six hundred miles, met an iceberg on her way,
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

It was on a Monday morning, just about four o'clock,
When the ship Titanic felt a terrible shock,
People began to cry, saying Lord I'm gonna die,
It was sad when that great ship went down.

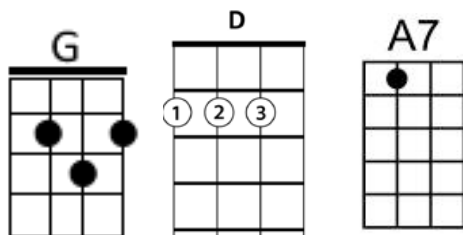

Chorus

The ship was full of sin, and the sides about to burst,
When the captain shouted out all women and children first.
The captain tried to wire but the lines were all on fire.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

The ship began to settle, and they all tried to flee,
The band struck up 'Nearer my God to thee.'
And death came riding by, sixteen hundred had to die,
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

WHERE DO YOU GO TO MY LOVELY

C Em Dm G
1. You talk like Marlene Dietrich and you dance like Zizi Jeanmaire

C Em Dm G
Your clothes are all made by Balmain and there`s diamonds and pearls in your hair

C Em Dm G
You live in a fancy apartment on the Boulevard St. Michel

C Em Dm G
Where you keep your Rolling Stones records And a friend of Sacha Distel

Chorus

C Em Dm G
But where do you go to my lovely When you're alone in your bed

C Em Dm G
Tell me the thoughts that surround you I want to look inside your head

2. I've seen all your qualifications you got from the Sorbonne
And the painting you stole from Picasso your loveliness goes on and on, yes it does
When you go on your summer vacation You go to Juan-les-Pines
With your carefully designed topless swimsuit You get an even suntan, on your back and on your legs

3. When the snow falls you're found in St. Moritz with the others of the jet-set
And you sip your Napoleon Brandy But you never get your lips wet

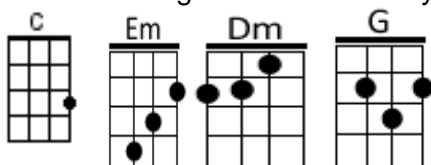

Chorus

Your name is heard in high places You know the Aga Khan
He sent you a racehorse for Christmas And you keep it just for fun, for a laugh
They say that when you get married It'll be to a millionaire
But they don't realize where you came from And I wonder if they really care, they give a damn

Chorus

I remember the back streets of Naples Two children begging in rags
Both touched with a burning ambition To shake off their lowly brown tags, yes they try
So look into my face Marie- Claire And remember just who you are
Then go and forget me forever `Cause I know you still bear the scar, deep inside, yes you do

I know where you go to my lovely When you're alone in your bed
I know the thoughts that surround you `Cause I can look inside your head
